Overview

Step into one of the most untouched and raw regions of the Himalayas —Zaskar Valley.

Far from crowded Ladakh circuits, this journey takes you deep into a land of dramatic mountains, ancient monasteries, remote villages, and surreal landscapes. From the spiritual aura of Phuktal Monastery to the towering presence of Gombo Rangjon, this is not just a trip—it's an exploration of the unexplored.

Journey Route>>

Manali – Jispa – Padum – Phuktal – Gombo Rangjon

Travel Details

Departure Dates: 15 May – 21 May, 12 June – 18 June

Group Style: 12 – 24 people

❄️ Day 00

Delhi to Manali—Leaving the Noise Behind

As you board your overnight Volvo from Delhi, the shift begins.

The city slowly fades, replaced by winding roads and cooler air.

There's a quiet excitement in knowing you're heading towards one of the most untouched regions of the Himalayas—Zaskar, where journeys feel raw and real.

Day 01

Arrival in Manali– Ease Into the Mountains

Arrive in Manali and check into your hotel, surrounded by fresh mountain air and pine-covered hills.

Take it slow today—walk through Mall Road, explore local cafés, and visit the peaceful Hadimba Temple, tucked away in a cedar forest.

This is your moment to unwind before stepping into a much more remote and adventurous landscape.

Overnight stay: Manali

Meals: Dinner

Day 02

Manali to Jispa—Following the River Into the Wild

Today, the real journey begins.

Drive through stunning Himalayan terrain, where the roads trace the river and the mountains begin to grow taller and more dramatic.

As you head towards Jispa, the scenery constantly evolves—lush valleys slowly giving way to rugged, high-altitude landscapes.

It's a day of transition—from familiar to extraordinary.

Overnight stay: Jispa

Meals: Breakfast & Dinner

Day 03

Jispa to Padum—Entering Zaskar

Today, you step into a different world.

The drive to Padum, the heart of Zaskar Valley, is long—but every kilometre is worth it. The roads feel quieter, the mountains more untouched, and the journey more personal.

This is where Ladakh starts to fade, and Zaskar begins—raw, remote, and beautifully isolated.

Overnight stay: Padum

Meals: Breakfast & Dinner

Day 04

Day 4 - Padum → Slow Exploration of Zaskar

After days of travel, today allows you to truly absorb Zaskar.

Explore local monasteries, interact with villagers, and experience a way of life that feels untouched by time.

There's no rush today—just the freedom to take in the silence, the landscapes, and the uniqueness of this hidden valley.

❄️ Day 05

Padum to Gombo Rangjon – Where Spiritual Meets Surreal

Today is one of the most unforgettable days of the journey.

Visit the extraordinary Phuktal Monastery, built into a cliffside as if it grew out of the mountain itself. The setting is dramatic, peaceful, and deeply spiritual.

Continue towards Gombo Rangjon, a sacred peak rising sharply from the valley floor. The sheer presence of this mountain feels almost surreal—like something out of another world.

As night falls, the silence here is unmatched.

Overnight stay: Camps at Gombo Rangjon

Meals: Breakfast & Dinner

Day 06

Gombo Rangjon to Manali – The Journey Back

Begin your return journey, retracing your path through the same awe-inspiring landscapes.

But this time, it feels different—you're not just passing through, you're carrying the experience with you.

The mountains seem quieter, the roads more familiar, and the journey more meaningful.

Board your overnight Volvo back to Delhi.

Meals: Breakfast

❄️ Day 07

Manali to Delhi—Back, But Changed

As you return to the city, one thing is certain—Zanskar isn't something you simply visit.

It's something you carry with you long after the journey ends.
